OUR SPEAKER FOR THE DAY MR. STAN SAUNDERS

When WJZ 13 tapped Stan Saunders to serve as a weekend sports anchor, the longtime Channel 13 reporter and 36-year broadcasting veteran--31 in television--was thrilled. A fan of all sports (and not too shabby a basketball player to boot!), Stan had covered sports for other stations prior to his arrival at WJZ in June 1991. News management here knew he had the right balance between hard news reporting skills and an encyclopedic knowledge of sports to well fill the weekend sports position at Maryland's News Station and general assignment duties, too.

Stan came to WJZ from WHBQ-TV in Memphis, where he had been an anchor and sports reporter since 1983. Prior to that assignment, he was assistant news director, street reporter, bureau chief, sports director, play-by-play announcer and talk show host at other television and radio stations in Florida, North Carolina and Virginia. At one juncture he was a college administrator, as an assistant vice president for development.

To demonstrate the versatility of Stan's broadcasting career, the Miami, Fla. native won the "Best Series" award one year from the National Association of Local Television Sportscasters.

Stan received a Master's degree in Educational Media Technology and Instructional Development from North Carolina Central University in Durham, N.C. and his B.S. in Sociology from Bethune-Cookman College (now Bethune-Cookman University) in Daytona Beach, Fla. He's also a 1991 graduate of Leadership Memphis.

Stan, the father of eight, also has five grandchildren and two great grandchildren. In his spare time, he is a church pianist, sports enthusiast and a much-requested public speaker. He's also an adjunct professor in the Electronic Media and Film department at Towson University.

Godly Men

Men worshipping together , giving God His due
Wanting change for the better by embracing what's true

The transformation of a man from darkness to the marvelous light
Gives him the strength to stand for his struggle's an internal fight

Praising together one and all taking it all to God in prayer
Giving him the courage to stand tall this is a spectacle so very rare

He's the head of his domain accountable to God for all
There are things which he must abstain or else, he's most certain to fall

Thank God for men with vision to see a thing through to the end
Helping others to make the right decision so they won't make the same mistakes again

So much to be thankful for since this world's almost at its end
Yet we can still walk through salvation's door because we need more godly men

Missions Praise Report!

As many of you know, the recent earthquake in Haiti has caused much devastation. Many children have lost their parents, and many of the orphanages have also been destroyed. But our God is still on the throne and we have a song of praise from our missionaries, the Garcia's! They were in the process of adopting two young children from Haiti. Many road blocks were in their way. It is with great joy that we write to share that their sons were granted visas into the United States. The children are now on their way to meet their new parents. This is truly a miracle. There are many dangers facing this orphanage and others, from the lack of clean water and food to the continuing aftershocks which are crumbling already damaged buildings. Please pray for the Garcia's and the children as they say good-bye to the only home they have ever known. Please pray for the missionaries in Haiti while they continue working desperately to save lives – both physically and spiritually.
